INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY CELEBRATION ON 7TH MARCH, 2020

International women's day was celebrated at ICAR-IISS, Bhopal with great zeal and cheerfulness. Different competitions were organized for women staff and family members of IISS staff. There was active participation of women in all competition such as Rangoli and Quiz , Mrs. Seema Bhardwaj, chairperson women cell highlighted the importance of celebrating women's day. The chief guest of function was Dr. Shobhana Bajpai Maroo, Retired Principal of Sarojini Naidu Girls PG College, Bhopal. She reflected her views on women empowerment, their rights, present status of women and other social issues that society is facing for upliftment of women and also highlighted on present year theme "I am generation equality :Realizing women's rights." Guest of Honor, Smt. Reena Patra highlighted the importance of inner strength of women and importance of education in the changing society. Tribal farmer trainees from Malda district of West Bengal under ICAR-TSP also presented the significance of women empowerment through song and dance which enhanced the flavor of programme. At the end prizes were distributed to winners of different competitions.